

Aerial photo of Campbeltown. Photo credit to Raymond Hosie.

Campbeltown

One of the largest towns in Argyll, Campbeltown is located on the Kintyre Peninsula and sits some 38 miles south of the port of Tarbet. The town looks out over Campbeltown Loch which is protected at its mouth by Davaar Island and so enjoys a protected position in the landscape.

Campbeltown Airport has one of the longest runways in Europe (dating from its days as an RAF base) and served as a diversion site during the testing of Concorde.

Once the home to 34 distilleries only 3 are now in operation, Glen Scotia, Glengyle and Springbank.

Driving to Glasgow, and therefore access to the motorway network, involves traveling up and around Lock Fyne and takes approximately 4 hours, while in the summer a ferry operates from Campbeltown to Ardrosson on selected days. Flights take less than an hour to reach Glasgow and operate daily through the year.

CAMPBELTOWN – links to further information

- Campbeltown Airport
- Campbeltown Courier newspaper
- Argyll and Bute Council
- Campbeltown tourist website
- Average annual weather information
- Sold house prices for Campbeltown, plus links to property searches and estate agent details. Enter postal code PA28 to search.
- Next 7 days weather forecast plus tide predictions
- Local business and community directory

- Find out more about what is currently happening in Campbeltown on Twitter:
- Campbeltown Airport Campbeltown Courier

Watch the following video for a closer look at what makes Campbeltown a great place to live and work. Campbeltown | Strengthening Communities by Highlands and Islands Enterprise

